

Lifeguard

Definition: Under the direction of the Outdoor Programs/Aquatics Coordinator and the Aquatics Supervisor, Lifeguards will be responsible for the supervision of pool users during all Aquatics programs.

Duties: Constantly observes all condition in and around the pools.

Provides a maximum degree of preventive caution in the use of aquatic facilities.

Make sure everyone checks in with their Coyote One Card or membership pass.

Prevents accident through the enforcement of policies, rules, regulations governing the conduct of persons in the water, on the diving boards, and on the pool deck.

Rescues persons in distress.

Administers first aid and artificial respiration as necessary.

Open and secures aquatic facility promptly according to schedule.

Wears lifeguard staff shirt and red, black, or blue swimsuit or shorts at all times.

Complete daily participation report/maintenance forms. Include all safety and maintenance items.

Complete Accident Report Forms when necessary.

The incumbent will perform other comparable duties as assigned by the Aquatics Coordinator and/or the Aquatics Supervisor.

Qualifications: Education: Must be enrolled in a minimum of six (6) units at California State University, San Bernardino and maintain a quarterly and cumulative G.P.A. above 2.0.

Experience: The incumbent must possess and maintain current certifications in American Red Cross Lifeguard/Advanced Lifesaving, Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) for the Professional Rescuer and Standard or Advanced First Aid during employment. Previous Life-guarding and/or participation in aquatics preferred.

Compensation: $15.85 - $16.15.